Frequently Asked Questions Regarding the CPR Regulation Requirement

Q: What CPR course do I need to take?

A: Chiropractors are only required to take the Adult Basic CPR course for certification. The Professional course is not required. Defibrillator training is not required.

Q: Who are the Board approved associations?

A: Currently, the American Red Cross and American Heart Association are the only Board approved associations.

Q: Can I take a CPR Course from other associations?

A: At this time, CPR courses are only acceptable from the American Red Cross and American Heart Association.

Q: Can I take an on-line CPR course?

A: Yes, as long as it is taken by the American Red Cross or American Heart Association.

Q: When should I send in my CPR certification?

A: Please send in a copy of your CPR certification with your license renewal.

Q: Does CPR training qualify for continuing education credit?

A: No, CPR is an additional training requirement that does not qualify for CE credit.

Q: If I need an exemption from the CPR requirement what do I need to do?

A: You must submit a letter stating the reasons for your exemption request along with a medical doctor's note to the Board with your license renewal.

Q: If my license is currently inactive do I need to fulfill the CPR requirement?

A: No, you are not required to fulfill the CPR requirement. If you decide to renew your license as active then you must fulfill the CPR requirement at that time.

Q: If I am applying to become a licensed chiropractor do I need to send in CPR certification?

A: When you apply to become a licensed chiropractor with this Board you must send in a copy of your CPR certification with your application.
